Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27th, 1888.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox;
Superintendent,
U.S. Mint.

Sir:

Thanking you for your promise of assistance in the handling of the shipment of Standard dollars, I beg to advise you that I cannot fill the daily quota of 500,000 unless you can loan me five laborers and a good rigged truck, and that I shall need them and it at nine o'clock on Tuesday morning.

My force of watchmen is at this moment much crippled from very many causes.

Respectfully yours
[illegible]
Asst. Treas. U.S.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox:
Superintendent,
U.S. Mint.

Sir:

Thanking you for your promise of assistance in the handling of the shipment of standard dollars. I beg to advise you that I cannot fill the daily quota of 500,000 unless you can loan me six laborers and a good sized truck, and that I shall need them and it at nine o'clock on Tuesday morning. My force of watchmen is at this moment much crippled from very many causes.

Respectfully yours,
S. Davis Page
